

NAHRO “What Home Means to Me” POSTER CONTEST

Calling all youth artists! Compete for the chance to win cash prizes and a trip to Washington D.C.!

Since 2008, the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) has celebrated the unique and poignant art of children living in affordable housing. The poster contest is conducted in multiple rounds: 24 regional winners compete nationally and the 12 winners are featured in NAHRO’s “What Home Means to Me” calendar the following year.

DUE DATE: April 14, 2025

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

The contest gives children the opportunity to express the significance of their home through art. Three local winners, one from each category, will be awarded a gift card. For further information or to request supplies, please contact Dalia at (831) 454-5982.
